

a bill of exchange. Walcott, who has done this business for a year or two will "fix" it all right. The accounts with the Standard will come in the same way, all mixed up with the other. Walcott will lift it out of the Standard, have it paid, by the whole receipts of Lewis Washburn and further arrangements. Tell your 72 to send us ~~the~~ ~~subscribed~~ bills on for one other where you find them to Webb, & he will send them to us. Better write in all these you send to friends ~~and~~ ~~where~~ what you like. Send them from yourself, or from yourself at my request, or from yourself in my behal, or some way, according to circumstances.

I advise that Devereux should be paid for, without hesitation, up to a hundred if it comes to as much as 30 dollars. Which I suppose it will. 50 of those

Bills, & other such, are a great addition to the wisdom power of the Board as a good piece of property as long as the funds continued. When Lydia comes Let her bring a Mrs. Hemans, a Longfellow, My Lowell which her Forbes had, & in general any book she is fond of: For here it is of course on second thoughts, here 2 of them bound by Peter a desert land as far as regards is concerned. Being also Jones' "Lemon if it is handy for I have forgotten every word of it, and any book upon Woman's rights which gives the American Laws. Wendell will tell you what. Also the Constitution of the Non-Resistance Society, & a copy of the 1st rights of Penna, for I have been asked for the book repeatedly & undoubtedly these are the nearest approximations. Also any Shay Bills particularly the ones which have Dr. Fuller's & Lucretia's ~~mother~~ pictured the weather is not cold but very damp & disagreeable & I think heartily for Caroline & I, as we have nasty colds. But Mary & the children do not seem to feel it. We are now no Jesso with our ~~stomach~~ Lizzy keeping well with the clap being well. Petkin is not very willing to devote herself to study or any thing else but at theater school she has made a hundred or two of actors who make acts & entrances in great style with many flourishes speeches on her part. All is being here to if the people can wait 7 years for the natural decomposition of time which is made even, all will do very well. But they "are a very quiet people & waiting is tedious to them.

They prefer to die any time.
He saw nothing from the Bates since we last wrote to you. No more as far as I know yours etc. M.W.C.
